Dear Mr. Feeney:

Thank you very much for your letter of 25 February inviting me to speak at the International Systems Meeting on Wednesday, 12 October.

Unfortunately, as I plan to be out of the country on that date, I must regretfully decline your kind invitation.

Your courtesy in asking me to join you is indeed appreciated and I would like to take this opportunity to wish you every success in your meeting.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The International Systems Meeting will be held in New York City at the Hotel Commodore on October 10, 11, 12 and 13. This is a meeting by and for management-level people, intended to increase their professional abilities.

A feature of the ISM is a major address, presented to the general attendance at the start of each day's program. Anticipated audience at this general session is more than 500.

You would honor our organization by accepting this invitation to speak on Wednesday, October 12, 1960. Our program allows approximately forty minutes for this portion starting at 9:00 A. M. A subject of general interest could be of your own choice.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope that your schedule will allow us the privilege of having you as our guest.

Very truly yours,

William J. Feeney
